Welcome to The Northern Antiques Fair,
the premier Autumn fair in Harrogate, held in association with BADA.

Following the relaunch last year under new ownership, this well-established event returns with an increased number of participating exhibitors, further emphasising its importance and status in the north of England.

Over 45 specialists from across the UK will transform Hall M of the Harrogate Convention Centre, at the junction of King's Road and Parliament Street, into a vibrant gallery where a tempting selection of items from the ancient to the contemporary is for sale.

Oil paintings, watercolours and bronze sculpture sit effortlessly next to period furniture, oriental carpets and clocks. Decorative works of art including glass, lighting and 20th century design objects complement silver, ceramics, boxes and treen. Also on offer are Chinese snuff bottles, jewellery, watches, portrait miniatures, maps, prints and antiques.

Buy with confidence from established dealers who abide by the strict codes of practice set out by the UK's leading antiques associations. Prices range from under £100 to six figure sums.
